March 19, 2012 (Austin)--The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC) today endorsed Bennett Ratliff for election as State Representative for District 115.

“We are proud to endorse Bennett Ratliff in this race,” said Red McCombs, San Antonio businessman and TCJL PAC Chairman. “His broad experience as a professional engineer, small business owner, and school board member uniquely qualify him to serve in our state legislature. He understands that in order for Texas to continue to grow and prosper, we need a strong business climate.”

A lifelong Republican, Ratliff is currently an 8-year elected member of the Coppell Independent School District Board of Trustees. His three grown children graduated from Coppell public schools and his wife, Beccy, is a former public school teacher.

“Bennett Ratliff will be a strong advocate for local community control of public schools, accountability to the taxpayers, and an educated workforce for the future,” said Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer. “We need his wisdom, dedication, and integrity in the Texas House of Representatives, and he deserves our enthusiastic and unqualified support for election.”

Formed in 1986, the TCJL PAC supports statewide, legislative, and judicial candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who are committed to creating and maintaining a fair and efficient Texas civil justice system. It has more than 5,000 members in Texas.
