Texas Civil Justice League PAC Endorses Senator Dan Patrick for Lt. Governor

AUSTIN -- The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC) today endorsed Senator Dan Patrick for election as Lieutenant Governor of Texas in 2014.

"We are proud to endorse Senator Patrick in this important race," said John Fainter, Chairman of the Texas Civil Justice League. "We look forward to working with the Texas Senate, under his strong leadership, in the upcoming session."

Since his election to the Texas Senate in 2007, Senator Patrick has consistently supported legislation aimed at leveling the playing field for litigants in the Texas courts, and strengthening the integrity and efficiency of the Texas judicial system. "Senator Patrick's business experience provides unique perspective and will enhance his ability to help guide the healthy Texas business environment and job market," said Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer.

"I am very honored to receive the endorsement of the Texas Civil Justice League PAC," said Dan Patrick. "TCJL has worked very hard for nearly 30 years for a fair, balanced, and efficient business liability system and I look forward to continuing our work together."

Formed in 1986, the TCJL PAC supports statewide, legislative, and judicial candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who are committed to creating and maintaining a fair and efficient Texas civil justice system.
