Texas Civil Justice League PAC Endorses Representative Jason Villalba for Re-Election

August 20, 2014 (Austin)--The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC) today endorsed Jason Villalba for re-election as State Representative for District 114.

“We are proud to endorse Jason Villalba in this race,” said John Fainter, TCJL Chairman. “His experience as a financial analyst and attorney gives him an excellent perspective on Texas business. He understands that in order for Texas to continue to grow and prosper, we need a predictable judiciary and strong business climate.”

Villalba has played an active role in his community, serving on many boards and committees. A proven conservative, he currently serves as Chairman of the Dallas Chapter of the Republican National Hispanic Assembly. He is dedicated to improving education, and his two daughters will attend Dallas ISD public schools.

“Jason Villalba will be a strong advocate for our public school system and accountability to the taxpayers,” said Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer. “We need his wisdom, dedication, and integrity in the Texas House of Representatives, and he deserves our enthusiastic and unqualified support for re-election.”

Formed in 1986, the TCJL PAC supports statewide, legislative, and judicial candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who are committed to creating and maintaining a fair and efficient Texas civil justice system. It has more than 5,000 members in Texas.
