April 30, 2012 (Austin)--The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC) today endorsed Justice Bailey Moseley for re-election to the 6th Court of Appeals based in Texarkana.

“We are proud to endorse Justice Bailey for re-election to the 6th Court of Appeals,” said John Fainter, Chairman of the TCJL Board of Directors and TCJL PAC Advisory Committee. “He has served the Texas judiciary with integrity and distinction. We are fortunate to have a public servant of Justice Moseley’s stature and experience in this critically important judicial office.”

Justice Moseley was first elected as a justice of the 6th Court of Appeals in 2006. Since his election, the 6th Court of Appeals has become the most efficient appellate court in the state and has achieved a reversal rate of less than 1%. This means that the 6th Court not only administers justice swiftly but accurately as well. Prior to his election to the court, Justice Moseley practiced law in Marshall for 36 years.

“Justice Moseley believes in judicial restraint and a strict application of the law as written by the Legislature,” said Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer. “We are proud to have supported him in his first election for the 6th Court, and he deserves our enthusiastic and unqualified support for re-election.”

Formed in 1986, the TCJL PAC supports statewide, legislative, and judicial candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who are committed to creating and maintaining a fair and efficient Texas civil justice system. It has more than 5,000 members in Texas.
