May 22, 2012 (Austin)--The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC) today endorsed State Representative Dan Flynn for re-election to the Texas House of Representatives, District 2.

"We are proud to endorse Representative Flynn in this important race," said John Fainter, Chairman of the TCJL Board of Directors and TCJL PAC Advisory Committee. "His broad experience as a state representative, businessman, and community leader uniquely qualifies him to serve in the Texas House. He understands that in order for Texas to continue to grow and prosper, we need a strong business climate and an educated workforce for the future."

"The Texas Civil Justice League's success in protecting the rights of all Texans has been demonstrated through their strong understanding of one thing: we need to continue to grow the Texas Economy and create jobs and legal reform is one of the most pressing economic issues business owners and consumers face in Texas. I am proud to have their endorsement," said Flynn.

Representative Flynn was first elected to the Texas House of Representatives in 2002. During his decade of service in the House, Dan has served on numerous important committees and is currently a member of Defense & Veterans' Affairs and Homeland Security & Public Safety. He was a lead author of a constitutional amendment exempting from property taxes the residence homestead of a veteran of active service overseas.

"Dan Flynn is a strong advocate for all Texans who have served our country with honor," said Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer. "We need his wisdom, dedication, and integrity in the Texas House, and he deserves our enthusiastic and unqualified support for re-election."

Formed in 1986, the TCJL PAC supports statewide, legislative, and judicial candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who are committed to creating and maintaining a fair and efficient Texas civil justice system. It has more than 5,000 members in Texas.

#   #