

For Immediate Release:

May 2, 2012

Contact: Amy Ellsworth • 512-809-6367 • amy@murphyturner.com

Texas Civil Justice League PAC Endorses J.M. Lozano

The Texas Civil Justice League PAC has endorsed Representative J.M. Lozano for re-election to Texas House District 43. The Texas Civil Justice League has worked to restore fairness and stability to the state's civil justice system for more than 25 years.

Carol Sims, TCJL PAC Treasurer, said, "Texas Civil Justice League has come to rely on J.M. Lozano as a trusted friend of business liability reform. We are enthusiastic in our support of his re-election campaign and look forward to working with him again on lawsuit reforms that keep our state strong."

"At a very young age, I saw the damaging effects frivolous lawsuits have on doctors and small business owners. I have consistently backed lawsuit reforms that protect our citizens and the integrity of our justice system. In fact, this session I authored a bill that is now law, which protects landowners from being sued by criminals who trespass on their land. I will continue to be a vocal proponent of tort reform and look forward to working on these issues again in the next legislative session," Rep. Lozano said.

Other recent endorsements garnered by Rep. Lozano include Texas Attorney General Greg Abbott, Texans for Lawsuit Reform, Texas Alliance for Life, Texas Farm Bureau, Texas Association of Realtors, and Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association.

Representative Lozano is serving his first term as State Representative for House District 43. He is the successful business owner of three Wingstop restaurants and is active in the Kingsville Economic Development Council, the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, and Lions Club. J.M. and his wife Abby are the proud parents of three young children.

###